STUDY VISIT IN FLORENCE

2024-1-IT03-KA151-YOU-000225870 SM-PDA-P-3

Co-funded by the European Union

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This program is designed for youth workers aged 18–35 who:

- Are actively involved in youth organizations.
- Want to enhance their ability to support young people.
- Have a strong command of English.
- Are committed to participating fully in the program.
- Seek personal and professional growth to bring added value to their organization.

WHY JOIN?

As a youth worker, your influence is central to shaping the lives of young people. Investing in your self-development strengthens your capacity and enables you to lead by example and create a lasting impact on your organization.

Through this program, you will:

- Gain first-hand insights into sustainable tourism models in one of the world's most visited cities.
- Exchange experiences and ideas with international peers working in education, youth, and tourism sectors.
- Discover practical strategies to balance cultural preservation, community engagement, and environmental responsibility.
- Strengthen your professional network and develop new Erasmus+ partnerships for future projects.

METHODOLOGY

The study visit is based on non-formal learning methods, combining individual reflection, group activities, and practical exercises. The inclusive and experiential approach encourages self-awareness, collaboration, and critical thinking, equipping youth workers with tools to thrive in dynamic organizational environments.

THE EXPERIENCE

During the study visit, you will take part in a variety of activities across Florence and its surroundings. You will have the chance to meet and learn from different organizations – both public institutions and non-profit initiatives – that are actively working in the field of sustainable tourism. Through field visits, workshops, and interactive sessions, you will gain a deeper understanding of how local stakeholders balance cultural heritage, environmental protection, and community well-being.

ACCOMMODATION

Participants will stay at a venue in shared 2–3 bedrooms, providing opportunities for networking and connection among peers. All meals are covered by the project. Travel reimbursement will be done according Erasmus+ rules.

Location: Villa Morghen

Via Feliceto 8 50135 Settignano, FLORENCE

SELECTION PROCESS

SELECTION OF PARTNERS

Interested organizations should send an email with the organisation profile and CV.

- Each organization must send 3 participants.
- Deadline: 29/09/2025
- erasmus.mobilities.icse@gmail.com

SELECTION OF PARTICIPANTS

Each organization has to select 3 participants, respecting gender balance, among active youth workers. We do not have a specific age limit we suggest an age of 25-35, but we leave the choice to your organization. In case you have participants out of this range bear in mind to select participants who are comfortable working with groups with a relevant age gap.

Once selected, participants have to fill in the following module: <https://forms.gle/H8xKi42NV1XwRKBs9>

Participants will receive an email from the coordinator with the confirmation of their enrollment and information about the travel arrangements.

Participants duties

All participants will:

- Be ready to present their own organization and share their experience as youth workers.
- Select and present two best practices from their organization related to sustainable tourism.
- Bring a laptop or tablet to work, in case you can not bring it please advise the coordinator.
- Participate in all the activities of the project.

Dissemination:

- To be eligible for reimbursement each participant will write a post or article about the project after the activity;
- Organize a dissemination event offline or online events within its organization or among other youth workers to share the results of the project.

Participants should provide photos, a description of the event and an attendance list as proof of dissemination.

Transport

All transportation within the city will be done using public transport.

How to reach the venue:

- If you arrive at the airports of Florence, Pisa, Bologna, first reach Florence Santa Maria Novella train station. From there, you can either take the tram or a bus, and then connect to bus number 10, getting off at the Settignano stop.
- If you arrive at Campo di Marte train station, you can directly take the bus number 10 to reach the venue area.

We recommend checking your route in advance with Google Maps to find the most convenient and up-to-date directions.

Weather

In late November, Florence is cool, damp, and rainy, with average high temperatures around 15°C (59°F) and lows dropping to 5-6°C (41-43°F) by the end of the month. You should pack a warm coat, sweaters, a hat, gloves, comfortable and waterproof shoes, and an umbrella to be prepared for frequent showers, but also anticipate potential cool, crisp, and even sunny days. We always suggest layered outfits!

TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENTS

Travel expenses (travel from your departure city to the project venue) will be reimbursed by bank transfer to the participant's organization, which will be in charge of making the final transfer to the participants.

The project is organised with a 2024 funding scheme, and travel support will be paid according to the Erasmus+ distance band. To calculate the distance, please use this link Distance Calculator by entering the location of your organization and the project location.

Contribution to the travel costs of participants, including group leaders, accompanying persons and facilitators, from their place of origin to the venue of the activity and return. Below 500 km, participant will, as a general rule, travel with low-emissions means of transport Financing mechanism: contribution to unit costs. Rule of allocation: based on the travel distance and number of persons. The applicant must indicate the distance between the place of origin and the venue of the activity ¹¹⁴ by using the distance calculator supported by the European Commission ¹¹⁵ .
